

What is the Transformation Program?

The Transformation Program is a drug and alcohol rehabilitation program provided by the City Rescue Mission at no charge to those in need.

Voluntary

Men choose to be a part of the Transformation Program. Though they are required to fulfill certain obligations and undertake assigned program responsibilities, the choice to remain in the program is always fully voluntary.

Residential

Program participants are required to live in the provided quarters for the full time of their stay in the program.

One Year

Program participants must be willing to commit to a one year stay in our residence dorm.

Bible-based

Biblical counseling and Bible classes are part of the daily training process of the CRM Transformation Program.
